

What if my pet needs medication?

If your pet requires medication at a specific time such as an insulin shot, the sitter will arrange to administer that at the schedule you have established at the initial interview. There is an additional charge for insulin shots. Please visit the fee schedule.